

Invitation to Share Your Story!

Ecumenical Women at the 67th UN Commission on the Status of Women

Ecumenical Women Blog

Ecumenical Women's website homepage (www.ecumenicalwomen.org) is a blog—we hope to post lots of stories there about what happens at CSW and what you experience.

Here's how you can participate:

- Write a brief reflection and email it to ecumenicalwomen@gmail.com
- Write a prayer based on what you heard, saw, and experienced and email it to ecumenicalwomen@gmail.com
- Send a photo of an event or meeting that you attended to ecumenicalwomen@gmail.com
- Post your own blog post and send us the link! We will add it to our social media and/or the Ecumenical Women blog

What is a blog?

"In simple terms, a blog is a web site, where you write stuff on an ongoing basis. New stuff shows up at the top, so your visitors can read what's new. Then they comment on it or link to it or email you." -www.blogger.com

The best blog posts are brief (a few paragraphs at most), that share stories, and have some visual element.

Pictures

Ecumenical Women has no official photographer—we are all photographers!

- Email a few pictures to ecumenicalwomen@gmail.com (small number of photos only!)
- Upload your photos to your social media and tag us! For us to be able to share them on our sites, you will need to make sure your photo settings are public.

Find a Technology Mentor!

Confused about Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, or TikTok? Want to learn more about how to best use these tools for advocacy?

- Ask a young adult in your delegation, or who you met at EW Orientation, to tell you about how they use these technologies.

Please share your stories with us! Take advantage of the variety of ways to engage in communicating about what is happening at CSW to all of our networks. And please let us know if you think of any other ways to share that are not covered here!
